PIONEER WASHER.
JAMES BRUSIE,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.
THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing. It is easily worked by one person.
This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to add housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.
It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.
The undersigned is now in the city of Portland, where he can be seen at Mr. O. Kilbourn's Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts., East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 20.

Greek Ambassador at Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Rangabee, the newly arrived Greek Minister, was introduced to the President to-day. The delivered his credentials with a brief address. He President replied, expressing a wish that Congress would take measures for a permanent location at Athens. The President assured him that the sympathies of the entire American people were with the children of the land of Demosthenes and Pericles.

Fenian Prisoners—New Canadian Ministry

LONDON, Canada West, June 18.—The Free Press has an article in favor of freeing Fenian prisoners held in confinement to-day, contending that such an act of mercy would be fraught with good results.

MONTREAL, June 18.—It is stated on good authority that the following gentlemen will form the new ministry: Mr. McDonald, Premier; Campbell, Howland, McDougal, Carter, Bellon, McGee, Galt, Legrin, Tilley, Tupper, Smith and Henry.

Fortunes of an Ex-Rebel Admiral—A Jury Session of Congress Certain.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The World's Washington special says information has been received here that Admiral Tucker has been dismissed from the services of the Peruvian Government.

A July session of Congress is a foregone conclusion. The Republican Executive Committee are sending circulars to every Radical member that Congress will assemble on the first Wednesday of July.

Appointment in Nebraska—Pacific Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Omaha dispatches say the Governor has appointed O. F. Mason Chief Justice of Nebraska, vice Little, deceased.

Reed, the Superintendent of the Union Pacific Railroad, has just returned from the North Platte. He says work on the road will have to be abandoned unless more protection from the Indians is afforded. Gen. Sherman was at North Platte.

The "Sovereign State of Texas."

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says Generals Griffin and Reynolds, commanding in Texas, report that Judge Rives of the Ninth Judicial District of that State, in a charge to the Grand Jury of his Court, stated that he should not receive the testimony of negroes, as the laws of Congress on that subject were unconstitutional, and he therefore ruled them out. They also report the same state of facts against Judge Dougherty, who stated as regards the testimony of negroes, that he would not recognize the law or authority of Congress, and would be bound only by that of the Sovereign State of Texas. Reports of a like character are received almost daily from different counties in that State.

Ohio Politics.

COLUMBUS, June 19.—Gen. R. B. Hays was nominated for Governor by the Ohio Union State Convention to-day on the first ballot.

Fire in Philadelphia—Loss of Life.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—The American Varieties Theater, on Wall street, and much surrounding property are in flames. The audience was not large and succeeded in escaping. Many were bruised in the mass to get to the front door. It is believed that all the performers escaped.

10:30 P. M.—The front wall of the building fell with a crash; about half a dozen persons were carried away injured. It cannot be ascertained how many are crushed to death beneath the ruins, to remove which, it will take several hours.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—There have been thirteen deaths from injuries received at the burning of the American Varieties Theatre last evening, and about thirty persons wounded.

Another turn around the Circle.

HARTFORD, June 19.—President Johnson will return from Boston by way of Hartford, and arrive in this city on Tuesday next. He will visit the General Assembly and remain over night in the city. The city government voted to give the President an appropriate reception.

NEW YORK, June 20.—It is intended by the Masonic Fraternity of this city, to honor President Johnson, on his visit to-morrow, by an escort of Knights Templar.

From the West Indies.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The steamer Bogle, from Havana 15th, has arrived.

Haytian advices of June 4th report the country quiet. President Salnave is very popular. The constitution was to be revised before holding an election.

Accounts from Belize, Honduras, say that law and order prevailed, in consequence of the prompt arrival of troops from Belize.

Jamaica advices of May 24th, complain of the scarcity of rain. The crops will be less than the lowest estimate made. There are, however, hopes of an abundant coffee crop.

Monetary affairs at Havana are improving.

South Carolina Matters.

CHARLESTON, June 19.—A duel took place this afternoon, a short distance above the city, between Edward Rose formerly of Columbia, and Theodore Bee. Brey, of Charleston. Rose was wounded, it is supposed, mortally, at the first fire. Brey promptly surrendered himself to the civil authorities.

General Sickles has requested to be relieved from the command of this military district, and has demanded a court of inquiry on his action, in order to vindicate himself.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The action of Judge Barnard was the reverse of that which was reported. He adjourned the Court because negroes were not put on the jury.

More Indian Outrages.

JUNCTION CITY, KANSAS, June 19.—A letter from Fort Wallace, dated June 11th, reports a number of Indian outrages in that vicinity on the 3d of June. Two men, named Favor and Thompson, of Pond creek, were killed and scalped between Pond and Goose creeks on the 6th. Two men from the mines, whose names are unknown, were killed within half a mile of the same place on the 11th inst.

The coach from the West, having on board Lieutenant Bell, three soldiers, a lady messenger, the driver and a guard, was attacked by twenty or thirty Indians, twenty-five miles from Fort Wallace. One soldier was killed—the others dismounted and fought the Indians four miles. They finally succeeded in repulsing the Indians, killing two.

It was reported on the 17th that the Government train was attacked eighteen miles west of Fort Hooker. One man was killed and his body horribly mutilated. The Indians are so troublesome that the stage drivers refuse to go out. Eight of them have already deserted their coaches.

It was rumored at Pond Creek that Gen Custer had been repulsed by the Indians who came down in force from Platte Valley.

Chivalry on the Rampage—Democratic Nomination.

LYNCHBURG, Va., June 18.—R. H. Glass, editor of the Republican, was shot in the street to-day by a son of D. E. Booker. The cause of the shooting was an article in the Republican, reflecting on his father. The shot took effect in the eye-ball, lodging in his head. Glass is comfortable but the issue is uncertain.

The Democrats have nominated Jacob B. Galloway for member of Congress from the Third Kentucky District, to fill the vacancy caused by the suicide of Elijah Hise.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The President has issued a proclamation announcing the ratification of the Russian-American treaty, and final exchange of ratifications have been granted upon written and personal applications of numerous prominent individuals, including Gen Grant and prominent army officers, also, several Senators and Representatives.

Thomas S. Smoot was fatally shot this evening by Henry Johnson, in consequence of a guilty intimacy with the latter's wife.

In the Surratt trial, to-day, further evidence was brought forward by the Government to show that the accused was in Washington on the day of the assassination. William A. Cleaves, keeper of a livery stable, testified that Surratt, in conversation with himself, said he and Booth had bloody work to do; they were going to kill that damned old Yankee scoundrel, Lincoln, Surratt, at the time, pulling out a pistol and laying it on the table. The witness saw Surratt on the afternoon of the 18th of April previous to the assassination. Booth and Surratt transacted their livery business with him. John Lee, a former detective, testified that he saw a man on Pennsylvania Avenue on the afternoon of the assassination, who, according to the best of his knowledge, was the prisoner at the bar.

At the meeting of the Cabinet to-day President Johnson announced his concurrence in the opinion of Attorney General Stanbery, and declared his purpose without further delay to relieve the district from its general military order. There was a meeting on the 18th when the opinion was considered and generally sustained by the united voice of the members, except the Secretary of War, who dissented from nearly all the positions assumed by the Attorney General.

The funeral of the late Commissioner of Agriculture takes place to-morrow.

The Tribune's special says The President has been informed of the arrival of Santa Anna in Mexico.

The Surratt Trial.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The evidence in the Surratt trial yesterday, apparently destroyed the chance of his acquittal by an alibi. A colored servant employed by Wm Surratt, and who was in the house on the night of the assassination, testified to seeing Surratt in the house that night. He related an incident to sustain the declaration.

Mexican Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The State Department has information that the court-martial in the case of Maximilian has, for the present, been suspended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Mexican mission has been tendered to Gen. Steadman, who declines, owing to the condition of his private affairs.

The Herald's New Orleans special says that Minister Campbell declines stating what transpired between the State Department and himself. He feels assured that the people will sustain him when the records of the Mexican mission are published.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Herald's New Orleans special has the following:

The El Mexicano of June 12th, says it is reported that Maximilian had asked for a private interview with Juarez, for the purpose of disclosing important State secrets.

Maximilian was convicted on the night of June 3d, and was sentenced to be shot on the morning of the 4th, with Mejia and Miramon.

General Marquez, commanding at the City of Mexico, executed General O Hara, commander of a post, for treasonable correspondence with the Liberals. He also stated that there were 160 Liberal sympathizers in the city and threatened to execute them and burn the Capital if Maximilian and his Generals were hanged.

Mejia selected Escobedo as his counsel, who refused to serve.

Advices from Queretaro to June 1st, state that the trial of Maximilian, Miramon and Mejia had been postponed until the 4th, but really until after the fall of the City of Mexico and Vera Cruz.

Maximilian is reported to be in better health and more hopeful.

A translation is published from the papers, of a pronunciamento on the part of the garrison at Tampico, against the Juarez Government, and recognizing Santa Anna as General in Chief of the Mexican armies and President ad interim of the Republic of Mexico. One paragraph of the pronunciamento protests against the action of Juarez, by which he has mortgaged Tamaulipas and San Luis Potosi to the United States for $53,000,000. The whole affair looks somewhat serious.

The Express has the following through private, and it says, reliable sources. Juarez having heard of the pronunciamento issued by the garrison at Tampico, in favor of Santa Anna, dispatched a large force against the former place. On the morning of June 6th the Juarez Generals Hinojosa and Fuyon attacked the Fort of Iturbide. The small garrison, shouting the war cry of Viva Santa Anna! Viva Republica! repulsed the attacking party, killing a large number and causing the rest to fly defeated.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Herald's special from San Luis Potosi, dated June 3d, says the probabilities grow greater that the trials will be postponed on one pretext or another till after the fall of Mexico and Vera Cruz. The arrival of the American Minister, meanwhile, lends to allay the excitement and satisfy the army, who clamor for Maximilian's blood. Accounts of his execution are constantly circulated at the City of Mexico.

Nearly all of Escobedo's army and the whole of Corona's, with the exception of 3,000 men, have been sent to the State of Jalisco to bring Lerado to terms.

General Diaz can carry the capital by assault when he chooses.

NEW ORLEANS, June 18.—A Queretaro telegram announces the trial of Maximilian concluded. Sixty Ladies, all in mourning, residing in San Luis Potosi, called on Juarez, praying that the lives of the prisoners taken at Queretaro should be spared. The President said he would do all he could consistent with justice and his duty, but that many Liberals had been shot for whom they had not interceded.

Two engagements had taken place at the capital, both of which resulted in favor of the Republicans. The foreigners in the city advise Vasquez to surrender, promising, to assist and protect his escape.

The Brownsville Ranchero says the El Mexicano of the 12th, reports Santa Anna at Vera Cruz.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Times says a report was received at Havana, that as the steamer Bogle left, that Santa Anna had landed at Vera Cruz on the 4th, and was compelled to re-embark. He then went to Siam, where the Liberals captured him. He was subjected to military trial, and was sentenced to be hung on the 8th.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The Times says Campbell's resignation of the Mexican Mission was entirely owing to ill health.

Our Government, through Mexican legation and other channels, has been persistent in its efforts to save Maximilian. The last communication from Seward to Juarez contained language of greater force than a simple request.

The Tribune's special says it is certain that the feeling of leading Senators is to oppose consideration of anything but reconstruction acts and discretionary bills. Two weeks may complete the session. The formal notice of the ratification of the treaty with Russia has been received.

The Herald's special says Chief Justice Chase has decided that parties in the South owing debts in the North, who paid the amounts to the Confederate receivers, were not thereby discharged of their obligations.

The Secretary of the Treasury will forthwith propose instructions regarding the trade and revenue of Walrussia. At present all regulations are subject to the approval of Russia.

The Times' special says there is little doubt that the President will issue an order restraining military commanders in the South from all actions declared to be illegal by Stanbery's opinion, although it is known that Secretary Seward has advised him against such a course.

The Republican State Convention of Iowa, which was held yesterday, nominated Sam Merrill, of McGregor, for Governor.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Times' Washington special says, Leutze's picture illustrating the cession of Russian America is nearly completed. The paintings are the two Sewards, Baron Stoeckel, Belladieu and Senator Charles Sumner.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Tribune's Washington special dispatch says Campbell, U. S. Minister to Mexico, has resigned, because he was not inclined to follow the recent instructions of the State Department. His resignation has been accepted. No successor has been appointed. The citizens of New Orleans urge the appointment of King, editor of the Times of that city.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Isaac Newton, Commissioner of Agriculture, died this morning.

PITTSBURG, June 19.—Gillespie & McKell's planing mill, Hobson & Co.'s sash and door factory, and six adjacent dwellings were destroyed by fire last night. Loss, $100,000.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The report of a case of cholera on Monday was untrue.

Venezuela advices to May 24th are received. Revolutionary movements in the State of Aragua were subdued without bloodshed. Congress authorized the Executive to contract for an extraordinary loan. The Upin gold mines are yielding handsomely. A rumor prevailed at Caracas that great discoveries of gold had been made. The reports had been the subject of discussion, by Congress.

The Herald's Leavenworth special says that the damage to the track of the Pacific Railroad by the recent flood has not yet been repaired. An immense amount of mail matter has accumulated at Junction City and Fellms. At Fort Hays on the 10th the water was 20 feet deep. Six soldiers and citizens were drowned.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Eight distilleries were seized today for violation of the internal revenue law.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Bedford, the bearer of the Russian American Treaty, has arrived at Washington.

The Memorial Diplomatique says that the Emperor of China will not visit Paris, the Chinese usages disallowing his absence.

The Tribune says leading members of Congress counsel a full attendance in July. Our friends will come full of purpose, feeling that they have been deceived. It will cost a great struggle to induce moderation. Confiscation and the granting of land to negroes will be pressed. We counsel moderation with justice.

The World says that California's white wines have actually come into competition in Hanover and on the Rhine with some of the productions of Germany. A French journal compares the California wines at the Exposition favorably with French products.

HAVANA, June 18.—Both houses of the Connecticut Legislature have passed resolutions of welcome to the President.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Bodisco, Secretary of the Russian Legation, arrived on the steamer Peiere, with the Russian-American treaty, signed by the Czar.

Fifteen yachts of the Brooklyn Yacht Club indulged in a regatta to-day. They were overtaken by a storm and nearly all damaged, losing sails, bow-sprits and other spars.

The Baptist Societies of this city and Brooklyn are holding a convention. Favorable reports of increased interest in that denomination have been made and the work of Evangelical Christianity is progressing rapidly.

A desperate fight took place on Monday afternoon at Calvary Cemetery, between a number of persons who had just buried a friend. The fight raged nearly an hour, knives and guns were engaged on each side, and clubs, bats and stones freely used. Several persons were severely wounded, and one killed is reported killed. The citizens living near were so frightened that they hid themselves in the woods.

NEWARK, June 18.—This

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1867.

Democratic Fastidiousness.

The Democratic newspapers of this State are giving wide publicity to a statement to the effect that Hon. Alvan Flanders, the successful candidate for Congress in Washington Territory, declared in Walla Walla on election day that he would rather be defeated than to be elected by the votes of colored men.—The Walla Walla Statesman is given as authority for this statement. As the Copperhead papers are making so much ado over it, and as the Herald has copied it at least twice since the election it will not be amiss to for us to inform them that they are altogether mistaken in their assertion, and that Mr. Flanders never made such a statement as they impute to him. The story is utterly absurd. Mr. Flanders would have been quite as far as his Democratic opponent from declining the votes of colored men. Several negroes in the Territory are reported to us as having voted for Clark, and if he had been elected by a majority amounting to no more than the half dozen votes they gave him, he would have been the very last man to decline the office on account of the color of those to whom he would have been indebted for his majority. Mr. Clark did not decline negro votes; neither did Mr. Flanders. And we know that Mr. Flanders did not say that he would rather not have the office at all than to be elected by negro votes; and we know, moreover, that Mr. Clark would not have declined it if he could have secured his election by the votes of the same class of citizens. There is not a Copperhead editor in Oregon who would be so exceedingly fastidious about the color of the voters whose suffrages would secure to desirable a prize. Their hostility to negro suffrage proceeds entirely from the fear that the negro vote will go against them. Thirty or forty years ago Democrats had no scruples against allowing colored men to vote. Their opposition to negro suffrage is of modern origin.

The Overland Mail.

Postal Agent Brooks arrived at his home in Portland on Saturday last, after an absence of several months in the East and South. He came by the overland route, passing through Salt Lake and Boise cities. For the present he will remain here, attending to postal business in the Pacific States and Territories.

Indian hostilities on the plains render the overland mails at the present time very uncertain and irregular. East of Salt Lake the route is in constant danger, and Mr. Brooks lost part of his baggage, including all his valuable papers, letters and documents, in one of the recent "raids" on the line. Being ahead of his baggage, Mr. Brooks himself escaped this attack in which two or three men were killed. Until the Indians are subdued it will be impossible to convey the mail over that part of the route with any regularity.

Salt Lake City is now designated as the point where the overland mails are to be distributed; and if the Indians were once quieted, we should, under the present arrangement, receive our mails much quicker than by the old route. Mr. Brooks informs us that when the troubles are settled, we shall get letters from New York to this place in seventeen or eighteen days. This is not much more than half the time which has usually been required when our mails have made the circuit by Sacramento. The newspaper mails will continue to come by sea, as their weight would render their carriage overland impracticable. The reduction of time which will now be effected on the overland route must satisfy us until the railroad is completed. If the coaches can come through regularly in the time indicated by Mr. Brooks, we cannot expect more from that mode of conveyance.

STATE ITEMS.

Gov. Woods will deliver an oration in Benton county on the fourth of July.

The Dalles Fire Department will give a ball on the evening of the 4th of July.

A Congregational Church edifice is to be built at Astoria the coming summer.

The Salem people are at work with a determination to get up a "huge" celebration on the coming National anniversary.

The Enterprise says that work is to be engaged in getting [illegible] on the bluff for the new [illegible] for the Oregon [illegible] Water Works Company.

Among the cases on the docket for the regular term of the Circuit Court for Marion county, we notice the following: "Oregon Central Railroad Company vs. Oregon Central Railroad Company."

A man named Lacher stole a suit of clothes and $100 in money a few days ago and started for the mountains. An officer was in pursuit, who overhauled him on the Quicksilver road, and "persuaded" him to return.

Up to June 10th the following travel has passed over the road south of Mount Hood: 650 head of cattle; 2600 sheep; 18 men on horseback; 19 horses and mules with packs; 104 loose horses and mules; two wagons and teams.

C. M. Cartwright informs the Record, that the machinery for his mill is expected to arrive in August, and that the mill will probably be erected on Mill Creek, near the old parsonage. He will get the water power from the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company.

On the 15th inst., while building a bridge on the Kickapoo, near Kiln, Polk county, a man named Ira F. Mimson fell from the upper part of the bridge striking his head on the mudsill and fracturing his skull. He died instantly. He was a young man who was highly esteemed among his acquaintances.

On last Tuesday, says the Corvallis paper, M. H. Bell, constable, served an execution upon Geo. W. Ballard, who lives a few miles west of this place. Ballard refused to satisfy the same. Constable Bell levied upon some cattle and took with him Mr. Brim to assist in driving the same. Ballard drew a pistol, was profuse in blasphemous and insulting language, and threatened to shoot if they attempted to drive off the cattle. Neither the officer or Mr. Brim were armed. They finally succeeded, however, in getting some cattle.

From Mr. Howe, a gentleman who has arrived from a prospecting tour for quarts on the Mot-how river in Washington Territory, we learn, says the Mountaineer, that there is no doubt but what there are extensive placer diggings in that region. He found where a party of miners had formerly been to work. An Indian told him that a number of years ago a party of white men had mined there but that they left to go to Fraser river. They had done considerable work and from a little prospecting by Mr. Howe, he is satisfied that the diggings will pay wages. The party that are prospecting on the We-nache, of which we made mention last week, are supposed to have good diggings. Mr. Howe speaks very highly of the general appearance of the country for grazing and agricultural purposes. He says it is one of the finest he ever looked at.

A letter from Canyon City to the Mountaineer contains the following items: Men are very scarce at the present time; wages $4 and $4 50. There are not many of the creek claims working, but what are, are doing very well. About Marysville, right back of town, ground-sluicing is the order of the day. I can't enumerate all the companies at work, but in the Hare's claim to-day I saw a pan of dust of about $4,000. The stuff looks as natural as ever. I don't think I will be able to get a company for four or five weeks, and in the meantime I shall go to work to pay grub bill. The District Court ended its session last Saturday night. About the only business was Sunday Law indictments. Everybody stopped up, plead "guilty," paid their fine and kept their respective places of business open just as though nothing had happened.

The editor of the Corvallis Gazette has been shown some specimens of wool of a very superior quality, as clipped from the flock of Mr. James Keys of this county, his entire clip, this season, will amount to about 5,000 pounds—most of which is graded to half Merino. If we had a few more such enterprising men as Mr. Keys, Benton county would rank foremost in fine stock. As will be remembered, he imported from the East, last spring, six thorough-bred Cotswold sheep—two owes and four bucks. Their total fleece, (68 pounds,) although not as heavy as some others, is about a foot in length, and of extra fine quality. He has in his flock 27 thorough-bred Merinos; the weight of their total fleece was 431 pounds—an average of 10 pounds to the head. The fleece of one three year old ewe weighed 24 pounds. This lot of wool is pronounced by competent judges to be number one.

A few days ago we were shown some beautiful specimens of gold bearing quartz which were obtained on the Coast Fork of the Willamette, about fifty miles southeast of Eugene City. The pieces of rock were threaded with gold to an extent which gave them the appearance of being largely composed of that metal. Several ledges have been discovered in the vicinity where these specimens were obtained, and it is believed that some of them will prove really valuable. The pieces of rock we saw were obtained from a ledge which projects above the surface of the ground; and though narrow, the ledge presents an excellent appearance,—at least we should say so, judging from the specimens we have seen. The locality is not very difficult of access, though being in the mountains of course it is not the easiest place to reach that can be thought of.

The Enterprise learns that a new paper called the Observer has been started at Butteville. The proprietorship has not been made known to us. An agent sent out for subscribers worked hard for two days, at the end of which time he wrote to the publisher, sending but one name, and the following account of his stewardship: "This comprises the sum total of my canvassing in the classic shades of Pudding river among the 'opulent' landowners of Marion county. The result was so discouraging that I stopped at two days and lent my horse to a lady to ride to see a sick baby, and took up my pen to notify you of the result of my efforts. I did not find a man who appeared to be guilty of owning a ten cent piece, and those who are good generally take the papers and do not want yours at present." Tolerably good Bro. Ireland, but we are not such gudgeons as to "bite" at this story till we know more about it.

A JULY SESSION.—It seems pretty certain that a session of Congress will be held in July, as provided for by that body before its late adjournment. Leading men in Congress appear to think that the emergency demands a session immediately; and certainly it looks as if the President and his advisers were managing the reconstruction business badly enough. They are proceeding in a way to render as ineffective as possible the late laws of Congress; and further intervention by that body, either now or at some future time, will be necessary to insure the enforcement of the legislation already provided. Johnson is an obstructor, and will never move one step further than he is compelled to move; and since he cannot carry out his own plans, the obstinacy of his nature prompts him to resist the plans of Congress by every means in his power. If Congress assembles next month, the enforcement of existing legislation in gard to reconstruction, will undoubtedly be only business that will come under its consideration. All other matters will be postponed till the December term.

The Mountaineer says: An old man by the name of Boyle in coming down the bluff of rocks in the rear of our city on last Saturday evening, accidentally fell among the rocks, rupturing himself horribly. It is doubtful whether he will recover. He was taken to the county hospital and is under charge of Dr. Charles Brooks.

A SEA WALL.—The great work of erecting a massive sea wall around the entire city front has been commenced in San Francisco. The sea wall once finished San Francisco will have as fine a harbor as any in the United States. KOUN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, have adopted a rule of trading that is as beneficial to them as the sea wall to San Francisco. They ask but one price for their fine and custom-made Clothing, Dry Goods, etc., and that price is so low that every person is satisfied that it requires no advertised figures to prove it, as facts are more positive proofs.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.—Every one that visits BUCHTEL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, comes away perfectly satisfied with their bargains. The highest style of the art is reached in the beautiful Sun Pearls and Photographs.

REDINGTON & CO'S

ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER.

☞ This valuable preparation, containing, in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary efforts that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

CELEBRATION OF THE "FOURTH."—Much has been said by a few and too little by the many, regarding a celebration of the Fourth of July, 1867. As yet every move has fallen lifeless and the enterprise displayed by many of our people has gone for naught, owing to the apathy of those who owe it as a duty to themselves, their progenitors, and their descendants, that they should make an effort and render all possible assistance to those whose patriotism prompts a "rousing" celebration on the natal day of our Republic. The Washington Guards made an attempt, and invited other organizations to meet them, but their call was not responded to. An invitation has been extended to the Fire Department of this city by the Fire Department of Vancouver to attend festivities at that place, and the invitation is now under consideration. What the final determination will be, is hard to be conjectured, as many members of the different companies object to reverse the matter and invite the Vancouver Fire Company to visit Portland on that occasion. We have a few suggestions to make, not with any intention to influence the action of the firemen of our city, but in order that the subject may be thoroughly canvassed, and a correct and judicious decision arrived at. The Fire Department of Vancouver is composed of [illegible] men, and if we can celebrate "Fourth of July" after an item—and his mind would take it for a run, and he would exclaim, "Who am I?" "Am I drunk?" We thought to ourselves we could answer that last question—only thought it, and did not speak it, for the [illegible] that "we" are not the "fighting" local, he having gone up the valley—and had we audibly answered it, we would have cut it short by saying that you maybe are somebody, and further that you are tolerable drunk—that your keg is about full and will soon be left high and dry with its enormous weight. So thinking we left. The last old drunk—a man unknown to us—was a little more respectable—and seated himself on a box, and there [illegible] when we last looked back.

The bark Live Yankee, Wiggin, master, arrived Saturday evening, 23 days from San Francisco to Astoria. The first night out she had heavy northwest [illegible] a very heavy sea. The deck load was shifted, and in doing so 6 carboys of acids were broken, and a quantity of provisions were lost, two men were quite severely burned with the acid. After the first three days the bark experienced one continued succession of light-baffling winds and many calms. The following are the names of [illegible] her freight: R N Law, E J Northrup, diamond "E," Knapp, Burrell & Co, H F G & Co, Portland Gas Works, diamond "B B P," Jno M Breck, Oregon Iron Works, P & B (Salem), Oregon City Manufacturing Co, Chas Aspkins, H Failing, E Hammond P, O Jacobs & Co, McMicken, Ladd & Co, L Ehlers & Son, Geo Abernethy, R M, (Albany), B F Smith, Hawley & Co, Wm Reynes, S B Plympton, A S Abernethy, Smith & Davis, Ben Holladay, W H Ladd, Ezzl, Lowenstein & Co, Everding & Beebe, McCowan (Astoria), P S W, Astoria, Galland, Goodman & Co, H G & Co, Capt Hervig, A A Quackenbush, Col Bevins, A G S, Camp, Lyon, B, Astoria, C, Portland, diamond S.

THE DENOUEMENT.—The elopement of a Chinawoman with a Chinaman had a denouement on Saturday, in the Recorder's Court. It seems that a Chinaman had loaned a female Chinaman $300, without stipulating any way definite time for payment, and according to the laws existing in China, supposed he had a lien upon the woman till the debt was paid, and he really had her in possession. In the meantime a gay "lothario" quequed gentleman arrived from San Francisco, who made a very favorable impression upon the lady's heart, who, in fact, was the very queen of his harem, and forthwith "stoled her away" to the city of Oregon. The wronged Chinaman, sought reliable counsel and found he could not recover the woman, so he went to the District Attorney, with what kind of a tale we know not; at all events, a complaint was made against the trespassing Chinaman for larceny. On Saturday the case came up in the Recorder's Court, and at the request of the complaining witness, the District Attorney caused it to dismissed. We imagine the Chinaman who loaned his money must have either recovered it or succeeded in regaining his lost Miss Chinawoman.

THE RANGER.—The steamer Ranger, Capt. Fisher, arrived at the wharf on Saturday evening last from Montezillo and the fisheries. She brought no salmon this trip owing to the want of barrels. The previous trip this steamer brought up 200 barrels, and to-day will take down a large cargo of salt and empty barrels, and anticipates bringing up this week a very large quantity of fish. At the fishery, five miles below Oak Point, on the Washington side of the Columbia, there is a firm engaged extensively in putting up fresh salmon in tin cans, for preservation in all their freshness. They have built a large warehouse and are extending their works. The manner in which these fish are canned is not generally known, and they take particular care to retain to themselves the modus operandi pursued, which, of course, is all well enough, in a business way.

CIRCUIT COURT.—On Saturday last Judge Shattuck presided and the following business transacted.

James B. Stevens vs. E W. Nottage and P. N. Nottage—Judgment rendered for plaintiff on promissory note for $284 14 in coin, and for the sale of lot 4 in block 118, city of Portland, and James B. Stevens vs. E W Nottage—Judgment on promissory note for plaintiff in the sum of $308 80.

Grover & Alexander vs Levi T Allen et. al.—action on account for goods, wares and merchandise—judgment for plaintiff with sum of $2,194 67.

John Baker vs. Mary Baker—default of defendant entered and case referred to J. H Stinson to take testimony.

State of Oregon vs. Darville Brown—four separate indictments found against defendant for counterfeiting and passing counterfeit money.

TO OUR READERS.—The society of "Honoris," which last month of July delighted the citizens of this city with a "spectacular" celebration, entirely unique and different from anything heretofore placed upon the "boards," met on Saturday evening last, and organized for a proper celebration of the coming Fourth. This will doubtless be the great feature of the day, and those who miss seeing this exhibition of youth and folly will lose a rare treat. A tremendous torrent is expected. We are requested to say that all those who are not members, but wish to become so, should make their appearance at the Council Chamber at half-past eight o'clock this (Monday) evening, and sign "passes," as after this meeting the books will be closed. Don't fail to attend the meeting this evening.

PIANOS.—H. Shuhelmer & Co., of New York, manufacture the bell metal, patent Agraffe Grand Scale Piano Fortes, of which H. Shuhelmer, No. 111 Front street, Portland, have on hand a complete assortment, which they offer at wholesale or retail. Mr. S is also agent for Steinway & Sons celebrated piano fortes and for J. H. Thompson's Patent Swell and Voice Tremolo Choral Organ. It will remunerate any person for the time spent, in taking a look at these instruments as they are fitted to behold and their sounds sweet to hear.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The examination of St. Joseph's School, under the charge of the Sisters of the Most Holy names of Jesus an Mary, transpired on Saturday, as advertised, at St Mary's Academy. We were not present, but are informed that everything was satisfactory for the occasion, and that premiums were awarded to those whose proficiency was recognized. The pupils generally did themselves honor, and reflected much credit upon their teachers.

HAD A FIT.—A gentleman by the name of Russel, of Eugene City, on Saturday last took the steamer Oneonta at the Dalles for Portland. He had been aboard but a short time, when he fell over in a fit. He continued in a comatose condition until the Cascade reached Sandy. There was no physician to attend him, but the men on board the two steamers done all that could be done. When he arrived at Portland he had nearly recovered from the effects of his sudden prostration.

INSIDE.—If reporters for the press were admitted inside the circles at the present time, from outside appearances we should judge that many a rich item might be obtained. There is, we understand, a great commotion of the political waters, the various aspirants for office "sizzling" around very much like a harpooned whale. In hopes to be able to blind the peering eyes of the disposing power and open its perception to the peculiarly admirable qualities possessed by the aspirant for the special position sought.

RACING.—A match was made and advertised to come off over the Riverside track on Saturday between the horses known as the "California Lion" and the Sargent horse, but owing to some misfortune happening to the former, he was not able to contend for the purse. His place was supplied by the Russell horse, and the purse was taken by the Sargent horse—time 2 57. There were two other running matches of one-half mile each. But little money changed hands.

COMIC TROUPE.—These minstrels propose to open out to-night at the Willamette Theatre. Johny Graham is the principal feature, and with him to rely on, and Messrs. Sprague and Wilkinson to assist, no doubt the performance will be fully up to the expectation of those who have had the pleasure of hearing and seeing these performers. The entrances are to be strictly fastidious.

THANKS.—Arthur Miller, Esq., dealer in fruits, corner of First and Washington streets, laid us under obligation to him last evening, by presenting the OREGONIAN with a large quantity of delicious, fully matured cherries. Mr. M. has the reputation of being an adept in preparing fruits for exportation, in which business he is preparing to engage on an extensive scale.

ARRESTED.—Thos. Watson, indicted by the Grand Jury of Multnomah county for larceny, who has been about Salem for some time, was arrested in that place on Friday and brought down to this city on Saturday by Deputy Sheriff T. H. Reynolds of Marion county, and is now lodged in the county jail.

CELEBRATION.—The Sabbath School at Whitaker's school-house, on the Columbia Slough will celebrate the coming Fourth of July, by a public dinner. Hon. J. R. Garlick will be the orator on the occasion. The Declaration of Independence will also be read. An invitation is extended to the public.

OUT OF LUCK.—Our old friend Wm. R. Hill was, on Saturday morning last, mulcted by his Honor, Judge Hoffman, in the sum of $5 and costs, as the penalty for assaulting, beating, bruising and slightly damaging our friend John Brandt. Go thou and do so no more.

PENITENTIARY.—We observe from the papers that the involuntary visitors at the Penitentiary at Salem are very busily engaged in manufacturing brick at the instance and request of their hospitable entertainers, and turn out about 20,000 per day.

HEAVILY LOADED.—The coach last evening, from the South, contained thirteen passengers, and among them was the genial and enterprising publisher and editor, D. O. Ireland, Esq., of the Enterprise, of Oregon City.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In this court, to-day, Judge Deady is to decide several cases of interest, which were reserved last week by his Honor. To-morrow morning we will report the findings.

PAID US A VISIT.—Rev. J. F. Damon, once connected with the OREGONIAN, and now pastor of the Congregational Church at Albany, paid us a visit a day or two since and appeared in good health and spirits.

IN TOWN.—Thos. H. Reynolds, formerly an attache of the OREGONIAN office, now Deputy Sheriff of Marion county, paid our city a flying visit on official business, and returned yesterday morning.

PRODUCE.—The Senator brought freight Saturday as follows: 114 bales wool, 113 sks wheat, 5 boxes merchandise, 2 bales merchandise, 5 sks potatoes, 15 boxes cherries, 1,762 sks flour.

GONE TO-DAY.—John S. White, Esq., and family, go up the Columbia to-day, en route to the Umatilla Reservation, where he is to assume the responsibilities of a semi-official position.

MASONIC.—The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, convenes to-day at 9 o'clock A. M. at the Masonic Hall to initiate the business of the annual session.

CHALLENGE.—The Wide-awake Base Ball Club of this city has accepted a challenge from the Occidental Club at Vancouver, to be played on the 25th of July.

TO-NIGHT.—We understand that No. 2 has a meeting to-night to determine its action on the invitation to attend the celebration on the coming Fourth.

DEPARTED.—The Ranger departed for Monticello and the fisheries this morning, from the wharf foot of Washington street.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Chas. Barrett, Esq., news dealer, for late Eastern papers.

In order to afford a little more amusement to those in search of Bargains, we beg to mention that Barman Bros. have on hand 4th of July suits at $6, rubber neck ties 50 cts. Our advice is to go to Barman Bros., corner Front and Morrison streets, for the cheapest and best made clothing. We mean it; they take a great interest in matters connected with the public.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.—We saw, yesterday, at J. L. Parrish & Co's something new in the way of an organ—a French instrument called the Organ Harmonium—invented by Alphonse Rodolphe. It is a very considerable modification of the organ as we have them from the American manufactories. It is provided with sixteen stops, each of which exercises a distinct and peculiar effect upon the tone. The bass stops are the Forte, Jen Doux, (soft, sweet) Basson, Clarion, Bourdon, English Horn; the treble stops are Expression, Tremolo, Scotch Bagpipe, Flute, Clarionette, Fife, Hautbois, Voix Celeste, Forte, and Knee or Full Expression. The effect of these stops in changing the tone is most surprising. For instance: from the flute to Voix Celeste with Full Expression, the tone changes from what sounds precisely like a soft flute, to the full grand harmony which we would expect from an Angel choir—what the name imports. The Key-Board is movable and can be adjusted to any key, to any instrument, or to the voice of any singer. Other changes are no less surprising. The instruments are of the most perfect workmanship and of the highest finish; have taken the first medals at all the great European Expositions. The prices range from $175, to $600. Persons in want of an instrument should call and see them, for it is impossible to get a correct idea of them, except from personal inspection. J. L. Parrish & Co., are sole agents for the Pacific coast.

FROM OWYHEE

The following intelligence is from the Avalanche of the 15th inst

RICH DISCOVERY

We verily believe a second Poorman has been discovered within eighty rods of our office, and lying in the hill south of Long Gulch. The discovery was made June 7th, and the ledge christened the Potosi. As the names appear in the notice, the luck parties are Chas R. Peck, A J Cope, B. Rinehart, M. Firebaugh, J. W. Cope and J. Firebaugh, each claiming two hundred feet in addition to the discovery claim which is held in common. Very rich gold float quartz was found near the creek last fall, but until a few weeks since no determined labor was commenced to discover the vein from whence it came. Cuts and holes were dug one above another until no float was found, and by falling back the first time some right down on a ledge of one foot in width, containing free gold and native silver, easily cut with a knife, and whole mixed with sulphurets of silver. Nearly every pound of the ore contains one or more of these rich substances. The top of the lode was broken off, and the vein where found was covered some ten feet deep with talc and sandy slate or rather both combined. The location is a most favorable one for mining by tunnels and shafts. The ledge has not the least appearance of a crevice or pocket, but that of a true vein. Therefore, a force of six men commenced work on Monday last, to grade out a commodious space for a shaft and quartz yard, and but little more has been developed through the week the uncovering of the ledge for near twenty feet, and every new point disclosed tends to confirm the high estimate placed upon its value.

Charles Peck seems to have "quartz on the brain" to most advantage to his pocket, for this is his second rich strike in Owyhee. The other members of the company have done much delving in these mountains, as well as in others on the coast, and previously without any great success. They are confident that they now have a good thing, and the present showing justifies the confidence.

THE POORMAN.

Stoping has commenced south of the South Shaft in this mine, and at a distance of thirty-five feet in that direction pure silver and free gold are found in the vein. This sort 'o spoils the prophecies that none of the "pure stuff" would be found either way from the main deposit—certainly not south of the old Poorman works. Development is what tells on a mine, and it will take several "coon's ages" to work out so much of this mine as is now known to contain the native lucre.

The mill of the Owyhee Mining Company, which is undergoing extensive repairs, is expected to be ready to commence crushing in much better condition than ever before by one week from next Monday. The engine bed had to be taken up by the roots and planted again; the tanks, pans, settlers and tailing yard all needed and are receiving repairs.

CRICKETS.

Ranchers are greatly damaged by crickets this year as usual. Mr. Jennings, who has had two years' experience on Catharine Creek, says that he has become fully convinced that ditches and running water will not answer as a protection against their ravages, but that tight and carefully constructed fences alone will head them off. Healthy crops of corn, barley and various kinds of vines have been eaten down this year and again the ground has been planted. The crops that mature quickly will still ripen, but it will make too short a season for such products as corn. The soil along all the creeks having their sources in these mountains is productive, and if the corp can be protected from the ravages of the pestiferous crickets, the seasons are long enough to admit of all kinds of produce maturing.

INDIAN MATTERS.

Col. A. H. Webb, who has just returned from a sagebrush voyage on the Railroad line as far as Camp McDermit, reports that two men named Black and Parry met with three Indians in the direction of the White Horse from the former place, and killed one and got wounded themselves. The Indians, when discovered, began to retreat, and were followed into some brush, where they showed fight to some purpose, but the men secured one scalp and brought it into Camp. If they had been armed with guns instead of revolvers they would have killed all. One more dead Indian is worth mentioning.

MILITARY.

Major Walker, Major Hunt, Capt. Harris and Lieut. Waymire made short visits to this moral vineyard in the early part of the week. Major Hunt has gone to San Francisco on official business and the other named officers to their respective posts. A small company of Boise Indians equipped as United States soldiers, have probably joined General Crook, by this time, as they passed up Reynolds' Creek nearly a week ago.

Southern Views of the Release of Jeff. Davis.

The New Orleans Times, of the 15th inst., says the release of Jefferson Davis from his long imprisonment in "the fortress by the sea," is received with satisfaction by the people generally, and particularly those of African extraction.

Says the New Orleans Crescent, on the same subject: "When Mr. Jefferson Davis, released on his bond, left the Court House in Richmond and proceeded to enter a coach, he was cheered by a crowd of negroes, many of whom pressed about him and shook his hand. There is the essence of a profound allegory in this spontaneous and unpremeditated congratulation. It speaks the language of native sympathy and impulse, of affectionate memories, and of habits which have the strength of a second nature."

The New Orleans Bulletin declares that the case of the nation against Mr. Davis will go off the docket "dismissed—agreed," or one practically settled by the principles expounded by Judge Grant, Sherman and Farragut. As the condemnation of Mr. Davis is not necessary to establish the validity of that which has been decided beyond appeal by the sword, we again congratulate the conquerors in having by this act recognized the logic of facts, the dictates of humanity and the spirit of an enlightened and progressive civilization.

The Mobile Advertiser mentions as a singular coincidence that the release of Mr. Davis took place on a memorable anniversary—the two hundred and sixtieth anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, and continues: "The settlement was the origin of the grand old Commonwealth of Virginia—'the mother of States, and the grandmother (as she may well be termed) of that Federal Union, of which the issues of the war have pronounced her to be only a territorial subdivision, or rather a mere tributary province, under present circumstances."

The Montgomery Daily Sentinel, May 17, after hoisting the names of General U. S. Grant for President, and Hon. Richard Busteed for Vice President, says in regard to the release of Mr. Davis: "We are glad that such has been the course of the Government toward this man. It is true it seems unfair that men should have caused the destruction of so many lives and the loss of so much property as Davis and his co-workers, and go unpunished, but perhaps it is best the Government should be generous, especially as Congress has sufficiently guarded against a future occurrence of the kind, by those men at least."

The Mississippian (Jackson, May 15) says of the release: "This is perhaps the strongest ray of hope for a return of reason that has been exhibited since the surrender. We must not falter now in the pursuit of right and justice when the assassins of the Constitution are falling back in dismay. Day after day we find the voice of the people condemning them throughout the North, in sections which maintained them heretofore. Let us be true to ourselves; let us turn a deaf ear to these panic stricken advisers who tell us to barter the last remnant of our liberties, together with honor and self respect, for the unsubstantial and degrading alternative offered us."

A Boston letter says: "Some time ago I wrote you of a new poet, a Western lady, whose manuscript was in the hands of one of our publishers. In addition to her poetical genius she is endowed with a fine epistolatory faculty. In the course of his correspondence with her, the publisher, endeavoring to gratify a curiosity which business considerations must furnish the justification of, delicately intimated that, together with other personal particulars (she being an utter stranger) he would like to be informed as to her age. See how she replies: 'The last clauses of your letter dismays me extremely. Must I furnish statistics? Is this the trying ordeal through which all young authors must pass? If so, no wonder so few lady writers survive it. Reject me, too, if you must, but don't make me part with that sacred secret usually so tenderly guarded by all my sex. Or, if you are a Yankee, please guess it."

"LONG GREEN SWELL"—Following is Mark Twain's joke on Solkirk, of the Auburn Stars and Stripes. It is recovered from the Rocky Mountain News.

"I once knew a great, tall, gawky country editor, near Sacramento, to whom I sent an ode on the sea, starting it with 'The long green swell of the Pacific.' The country editor sent back a letter and stated I couldn't fool him, and he didn't want any base insinuations from me. He knew who I meant when I wrote the 'long, green swell of the Pacific'"

The Eastern Press on the Reconstruction Question

The New York Tribune, alluding to the decision of the Supreme Court on the reconstruction law, says

The history of the injunction bills is one of weakness, legally and morally. When, over the veto of the President, Congress passed the supplementary Reconstruction bill, the South yielded at once. Such a law had been known to be inevitable, more than this, it was felt to be just. There are few men in the Southern States who did not well know that over their heads hung the sword, that the United States had the right and the power to impose all the penalties of treason, and that confiscation and a division of lands were a punishment from which at least no legal appeal could be made. The extent of the punishment was a question of morals more than of law, of generosity more than of justice. Davis, Stephens, Lee, Johnston, Hampton, were all men whose lives and property the Government held at its mercy. It spared the men, it spared the property, and the terms it finally required were felt not to be so much a punishment as a precaution. Therefore, when the South was placed under temporary military rule, when the ballot was given to the freedman, and the method of restoration prescribed, the South was ready to yield, and did yield quietly, though there were men and journals who did their utmost to organize resistance. Lee, Johnston, Hampton counselled submission, most of the Southern Governors advised the people of their States to take part in registration, and formal opposition began and ended with Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, and Governor Jenkins, of Georgia. More dangerous opposition, it is true, is embodied in the cruel murder of negroes we have from week to week reported, and in such bloody riots as that of Mobile last Tuesday, but that may safely be left to the law itself to subdue.

The sole hope of those who thought that direct resistance might be made, was in opposing to one branch of the government a co ordinate branch—in putting the Supreme Court against Congress. All the traditions of the Supreme Court were in their favor, but, as it proved, the law is not. Even the Attorney General, confessing that his sympathies were with those who denied the constitutionality of the law, was obliged to oppose the suits brought by his friends. The Georgia injunction bill was dismissed, on the main ground that the Court had no jurisdiction in the matter, and yesterday the motion for leave to amend the Mississippi bill, so as to obviate certain legal objections was refused by a majority of the Court, and the bill dismissed. Thus ends the solitary hope of nullifying the laws of Congress and the will of the loyal people. In law, the question is settled, we presume, forever; in fact, it can only be illegally disputed by riot or new rebellion. We are not sorry that this attempt was made to set aside the Reconstruction law by means of the Supreme Court, for its failure must convince all the citizens of the rebel States of the necessity of submission. They know now, if they did not before, that the will of the people is not to be turned aside by a quibble, and that the method of reconstruction is fixed.

On the same subject the Chicago Tribune has the following:

The victory which the Radicals have achieved is in having it judicially determined that the exercise of the legislative power of Congress is not subject to the approval of the Judiciary or of the Executive, and that the power to declare war may not be prohibited by judicial injunction. It would be a melancholy sort of government if the acts of Congress, before becoming laws, had to pass the ordeal of the Supreme Court; and still more so, if war could never be declared as long as the Supreme Court was opposed to it. The Radical victory consists in having the powers of the people, acting through their representatives, confirmed, instead of denied. The Supreme Court consists of nine Judges. If a majority of these nine men should be opposed to a war, the Times thinks they ought to have power to inhibit a declaration of war by Congress. Such a rule would have the effect of transferring the legislative power of the Government to the Supreme Court, and of reducing Congress to the condition of a mere committee to prepare legislation for the action of the court. If the Supreme Court may interpose its authority to arrest the legislative power of Congress in one case, why not in all cases? Why not invoke its action upon the tariff, or upon the national finances? If the Court can interpose its authority to forbid the enforcement of an act of Congress declaring war, why not the authority of the same Court be invoked to forbid the execution of a treaty with a foreign Government? The Congress is the representative of the people, and though Attorney General Stanbury may declare he regards it as the defect in our system of government that as long as Congress is backed by the majority of the people, there is no authority in the Executive or the Judiciary to restrain or prohibit it in the exercise of the legislative powers, the Radicals think that the supposed defect is one of the greatest blessings of the Constitution. The legislative authority of the United States is supreme within its jurisdiction, and it is the only branch of the Government that is so; it cannot be otherwise without becoming a mere mockery. In its hands are reposed the guardianship of popular interests, and woful will be the day when it is made subordinate to either the Executive or Judiciary, or to both combined.

The Brooklyn Union says: "The last hope of overthrowing the prescribed terms or evading the authority of Congress is taken away from the citizens of the rebel States. Those who are discontented with things as they are, and still prone to be rebellious, will promote their own comfort if they will, following the example of their more sensible fellow-citizens, sit down quietly and take things as they come, and try and make the best of them. What hope is placed in Mr. Stansbery's forthcoming opinion is doomed to be dashed by the reflection that if it interferes materially with the operation of the law, its only result will be delay and the imposition of worse terms by the next Congress."

The Local Reporter.

At a printers' festival, held not long since in Columbus, Ohio, Mr. W. H. Busley, of the State Journal, in responding to the toast of, the Local Reporter, made a very characteristic speech. It is so much to the point that we quote some extracts:

Some years ago, when it was proposed that I become a local editor, I asked a friend, an old newspaper man, the simple question: What are the duties of a local editor? He answers bluntly, I cannot tell you. A local editor is always badly scattered. He is the bushwhacker of a newspaper establishment. He works on the high pressure principle, always ready to blow up or be blowed up, but his position is not definable. He does a little of every thing. The question was repeated in earnest, but always came the same answer. I thought the man unkind, and was so unfavorably impressed with the duties of a local editor that I dodged them, and commenced my newspaper career in another department.

"Since that I have been compelled to admit that the man was right. Experience has taught me that the duties of a local reporter are learned and not taught. His department is in truth the skirmish line of the establishment. It is his duty, to meet face to face with the world about him. His battles are on the guerilla plan, but must be fought with broken lines, and so skillfully managed as never to bring into action the heavy forces of the reserve. A reporter of local events becomes necessarily a peculiar person. He seems to the world a very mercenary individual. He goes to see a man who has broken his leg, not to sympathize, but to question him. He runs to a fire not to give assistance, but to get particulars. He wishes no man harm, but when harm befalls, he calls it good luck. He has an item on the brain.

It is his business to ask questions, his duty to answer none. A "burglary" with him is simply business, something horrible, a sensation.

His receiving capacity is very great. In one hour he will have been in the dark hell hole to look upon a murder, will have joined the bright Christian festival, have listened to the eloquent words from a pulpit, have listened to the sweetest strains of an opera, have glanced at the best scenes in a drama, have possessed himself of the most important news at the capitol, and, having greeted and questioned one hundred people, be in his seat telling for the reader a dozen different stories in as many minutes.

Seriously, the local editor is often misunderstood. He is no less a gentleman than others of mankind. There is as little of mercenary about him as any other man of business. He cannot have the elaborate politeness of the man of leisure, and hence is often misunderstood. The lady from whom he hurries away, with a half framed apology, to shake hands with a rough looking man, pronounces him a bear. Instinct teaches the local that the rough man has an item, and the lady would excuse his impoliteness did she know that the stirring romance of the next day came from the rough individual who supplanted her in the local's attentions. The aristocrat thinks the local fool when he turns from him to shake hands with a laborer, the poor man that he is a swell when he meets him arm in arm with the rich man. On every hand he is liable to be misunderstood. But he has friends that rightly understood him, who know that a local editor is often a man with a warm heart.

The bookkeeper of a large firm in Chicago returns a greater income this year than all the members of the firm put together.

THREE NOTED SOUTHERNERS.—"Mack" writes from Georgia to the Cincinnati Commercial

Toombs has abandoned all hope of making his slaves answer to roll-call at the foot of Bunker Hill, and has settled down into the peaceful pursuits of private life at his home in Washington, Georgia. He came out of the war tolerably well, considering the share he took in bringing it on. He lost nothing but his slave property. He has large landed estate in Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, and he is now diligently cultivating them with free labor. Those who know him, and have recently seen him, say that no inducements could get him into politics again. He accepts the situation, will obey the laws, and behave himself.

Iverson, his colleague in the Senate at the outbreak of the war, is living at Macon—broken down in fortune, and in bad health. He managed to lose all his property by the war, and now supports himself by keeping a large wood yard.

A H Stephens is little seen or heard of. He is at his home at Crawfordeville, on the road between here and Augusta, practising law. His views on the reconstruction question are not known. They have been repeatedly given, but not having originated with himself, have been as repeatedly contradicted. I heard something recently in connection with the election of Mr. Stephens to the United States Senate, which I have not seen in print, and which I think ought to be published. It is this, Mr Stephens, as is well known, did not desire to be elected. He told his friends so, but they urged it upon him. General Steadman was the man who had most to do with it. He happened to be in the interior of Georgia at the time—in military command, I think—and took great interest in the matter. Steadman telegraphed to Johnson to know if it would be advisable to elect Stephens. The President replied very decidedly in the negative, saying that Mr. Stephens was on parole, and ought not to meddle in politics at all. His advice was not taken, and Stephens was elected.

THE GLORY OF MAN IS STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

DR HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by the Druggists and dealers everywhere. Consumption like the Rattle Snake, always gives warning of its approach. A hacking cough, dull pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, are the indications that there is more or less irritation of the lungs. If this is neglected, and go on until pustules are formed, followed by tubercles, which sometimes eat off the blood vessels, death will be the result. Allen's Lung Balsam will heal the irritated parts, allay the inflammation, removing the phlegm and matter, thus stopping the cough, and preventing fatal consumption. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER, after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy in case of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Sting of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century
